RENEWED PETITION UNDER 37 CFR 1.137(b)

Statements Regarding Unintentional Delay

In support of the foregoing Petition to Revive an Abandoned Application, the undersigned, the attorney of record in this case, declares and states the following:

1. On October 11, 2004 in advance of the due date of October 13, 2004 established in the associated Notice of Allowance, a completed Fee Transmittal form PTOL-85 was mailed to the USPTO endorsed with an appropriate Certificate of Mailing indicating same and including a check #4125 in the amount of $985.00 intended for payment of the total amount of the issue and publication fees. Copies of the completed Fee Transmittal form and its accompanying check are marked and attached as Exhibits "A" and "B" respectively.

2. The check for $985.00 was drawn on a business credit line account (#3722-670054-72001) extended to the undersigned by American Express and was made on October 11, 2004 after phone verification by the undersigned that the available credit in the account was sufficient to cover the check amount. In fact, the undersigned determined by phone from the automated American Express customer account line that the available credit as of the date of the draft was $1,281.00. The check was therefore submitted in good faith and with the full understanding that it would be honored.

3. Notwithstanding the fact that there was sufficient credit available in the account to cover check #4125, American Express declined the draft on or about October 21, 2004 without any notice or explanation whatsoever to the undersigned until the subsequent account statement was received on November 15, 2004. A copy of said account statement is marked and attached as Exhibit "C". As is indicated by the entries on said account statement, the check for $985.00 was declined without a stated reason at a time when there was sufficient credit available to otherwise honor the check.

4. The undersigned took measures in advance to make sure that the check amount did not exceed the credit available to him in this account, making an advance payment to his account (indicated on Exhibit "C") on October 9, 2004 and verifying its effect on October 11, 2004. On that basis, the undersigned submitted the check to the USPTO with the full belief and bona fide intention that it would be honored in payment of the requisite fees. However, due to the unexpected and unexplained decline of the check by American Express, the check was "bounced" and as a result, a Notice of Abandonment was issued on November 12, 2004 and received on November 15, 2004.

5. Upon receipt of the Notice of Abandonment, the undersigned promptly submitted a Petition to Revive under 37 CFR 1.137(a), mailing the Petition to Revive (under certificate of mailing) on November 16, 2004 together with the petition fee and the unpaid issue fee totaling $1,040.00 (see Exhibit "D"). That Petition was submitted based upon the belief that the above-stated circumstances and evidentiary documents showed an unavoidable delay in this case. Notwithstanding the above, a dismissal of the prior Petition was mailed on February 2, 2005 and received by the undersigned on February 7, 2005.

6. Accordingly, the undersigned hereby restates that the entire delay was unintentional and requests prompt reconsideration of the abandonment of the referenced application in the form of this Renewed Petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b).

Respectfully submitted,

ARMAND M. VOZZO, JR. 2-11-05
